2027 Growing Leaders
National Vegetable and Onion Industry Leadership Program

Ready to lead your future, your business and your industry? Apply now for the only national leadership program built specifically for Australian vegetable and onion industry people.

Why Growing Leaders?

- Made for you: designed with industry people, around the real needs of the industry.
- Proven: a decade of success before COVID-19, with well over 200 graduates across 12 years.
- Backed by the best: funded by Hort Innovation, supported by AUSVEG and delivered by Affectus, Jill Briggs and her expert facilitator team.
- Open to all sectors: growing, processing, wholesale, extension and service providers.

Lead at every level

- Personal: unlock your own potential.
- Business: power up the future of your business.
- National industry: make your mark on the Australian vegetable industry.
- Build and put into action a plan for each level.

Walk away with skills that count

- Handle conflict with confidence
- Communicate with impact
- Run meetings that get results
- Build high-performing teams
- Lead through change
- Handle the media like a pro
- Understand the diversity of the industry and the issues it faces

"Interesting, challenging, informative, fun, helpful, thought-provoking."
